

Educational Scholarship as a Team Sport: The C's to Success

Keynote Address

Sheila W. Chauvin, PhD, MEd

(drsheilachauvin@gmail.com)

Learning Objectives:

By the end of this workshop, participants will enhance their abilities to do each of the following to enhance collaborative educational scholarship:

1. Respond effectively to challenges that influence productivity
2. Be strategic in communications, connections, and cooperation
3. Collaborate effectively with others (e.g., as a community of practice)
4. Optimize team member compatibility and complementarity

While waiting for the start of this session, consider the following, and if you like, jot down a few notes.

Prompt	Your Notes
In a sentence or two, describe an educational research or scholarship project you'd like to do.
Is this project best pursued as a solo or team effort? Why?
If solo, what expertise or resource might you need to draw upon? OR If a team, what would be the ideal composition of the team?
